

Johnny Truant

johnny.truant@umd.edu | (617) 555-5678 | College Park, MD

Summary

Creative and results-oriented frontend designer with a passion for crafting user-centric interfaces. Proven ability to translate design concepts into clean, responsive, and pixel-perfect user experiences (UX) across various platforms. Skilled in leveraging design thinking principles to deliver impactful and engaging web applications. Eager to leverage design expertise within a collaborative team environment.

Education

- University of Maryland, College Park, MD (Expected Graduation: May 2025)
 - Bachelor of Arts in Studio Art with a concentration in Digital Media | GPA: 2.98
 - Relevant Coursework: User Interface (UI) Design, User Experience (UX) Design, Visual Design, Web Design, Graphic Design, Interaction Design
 - Portfolio Website: <https://johnnyxtruant.com/news>

Skills

- Design Tools: Figma, Adobe XD, Sketch, Photoshop, Illustrator
- Development Languages (working knowledge): HTML, CSS, JavaScript (basic understanding)
- UI/UX Design Principles: User-centered design, Responsive design, Accessibility, Information architecture, Interaction design
- Design Trends: User research, Wireframing, Prototyping, User testing, Iteration
- Software: Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)

Projects

- Responsive Portfolio Website (Personal Project)
 - Designed and developed a personal portfolio website showcasing design skills and experience, ensuring responsiveness across various devices.
- E-commerce Redesign (University Project)
 - Collaborated with a team to redesign the user interface of a simulated e-commerce platform, focusing on improving usability and user experience.

- Mobile App Prototype (Freelance)

- Designed a high-fidelity prototype for a mobile fitness application, adhering to client requirements and industry best practices.

Experience

- Freelance Graphic Designer | College Park, MD (January 2022 - Present)

- Designed logos, social media graphics, and marketing materials for various local businesses.
- Gained experience working with clients to understand their needs and translate them into impactful visuals.
- Honed communication and project management skills.

Awards and Activities

- Member, University of Maryland Design Club

Additional Information

- Strong problem-solving and critical thinking skills
- Excellent communication and collaboration skills
- Highly motivated and self-directed with a keen eye for detail
- Adaptable and eager to learn new design tools and technologies